- Enrich our curriculum and provision through texts.
- Extend our children's experiences and build cultural capital.

Early Reading at Hucknall National C of E Primary.

Guided Reading is taught through individual, paired and grouped reading as part of the Read Write Inc. programme from Reception and throughout Key Stage 1. Children are grouped according to their reading ability and the text is carefully chosen to match their colour level. These sessions are led by a teacher or teaching assistant and are used to develop the children's comprehension and understanding of texts. Additional texts are also explored in a whole class setting to develop comprehension skills through discussion.
