

Unit:
Greece

Concept:

Subject:
Geography

Key facts

Greece is in the south of Europe.

Greece is made up of mainland and thousands of islands.

The capital of Greece is Athens.

Greece is a Mediterranean country.

Greece has the longest coastline in Europe.

80% of Greece is made up of mountains.

What?
Key Vocabulary

Spelling	Definition/Sentence
Atlas	A non-fiction book full of facts about the world.
Contents	The page found at the beginning of a non-fiction book to help you find the correct page.
Carbon Footprint	The amount of carbon dioxide created by our actions including transport and litter.
Europe	The continent in which Greece is in.
Tourism	People visiting the country for holidays, sight seeing, family visits.
Mediterranean	The sea next to Greece.
Physical features	Physical features of a country are the mountains, lakes, oceans, valleys.
Human features	Human features of a country are the roads, towns, cities and structures.
Crete	The largest of the Greek islands.

Sequence of lessons

Lesson	Definition/Sentence
1	Where is Greece?
2	What are the physical features of Greece
3	What are the human features of Greece?
4	What is the impact of tourism on Greece?
5	What is our carbon footprint?
6	Create a map and plan a journey.